

FOCUSED ON QUALITY & IMPACT

Alumni ratings of quality (5 = very good)

Alumni assessments of impact (5 = very high)

- 100% of graduates agree that SPS made them a significantly better leader *
- 100% of graduates agree that SPS made them a significantly better manager
- 97% recommend SPS to prospective students

TALENTED INSTRUCTORS

- SPS instructors are a mix of full-time staff and part-time practitioners
- SPS instructors have degrees from:
 - Harvard
 - Kampala U
 - Nkumba University
 - Oxford
 - Syracuse (Maxwell)
 - Stanford
 - Uganda Martyrs
 - U of South Australia
 - U of Toronto
 - U of Juba

"HOME-GROWN" SOLUTION

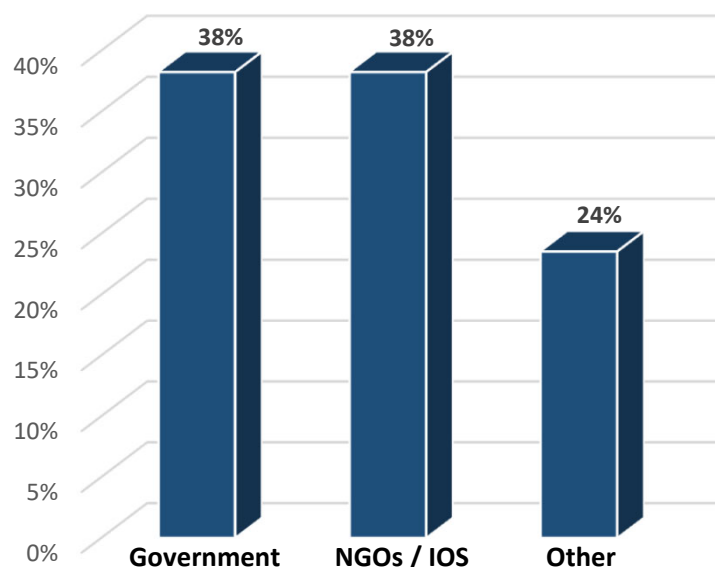

- South Sudanese volunteers were key in establishing SPS
- A South Sudanese Board of Trustees guides SPS
- 95% of full-time staff are South Sudanese
- "Lost boys," who returned home, played key roles in mobilizing the school

RESPONSIVE

- Evening classes to accommodate working students (majority of students are in their 30s and employed)
- Masters degree in two years, following the international academic calendar
- Customized programs for Ministries, NGOs, and IOs

SERVING MULTIPLE SECTORS

SPS graduates work with...

GOOD VALUE

- Masters degree tuition: $1,000 / year
- Customized courses developed and delivered at local rates
- Low overhead: 4%

UNITY IN DIVERSITY

